CEDRO AT ECOrient

June 3, 2015

CEDRO will be participating in the EcOrient conference on June 3rd at Biel. The conference addresses the critical regional energy and environment issues, providing green solutions for a better and more sustainable future. Under the “Sustainable Energy for all” session, CEDRO will present the project brief and provide a status update for the various ongoing implementations.

Read more

June 1, 2015
SOLAR STREET LIGHTING FOR AKKAR

290 Solar power street lighting has been installed in various villages in Akkar thanks to a grant by the Saudi Fund for Development, transferred through the UNHCR. A further 210 solar street lighting poles are expected for 2015. Host communities suffer from a deteriorated existing infrastructure, the provision of solar street lights will help increase social exchange and security.

Read more

May 20, 2015
EMKAN AND TAHRIR KICK OFF MEETINGS

Two hybrid solar – diesel implementations are well underway. Kick off meetings have been held with the winning contractors of the above mentioned sites. Both sites will have PV panels coupled with diesel generators to provide their electricity needs during blackouts. Both sites are expected to be completed by end of October 2015.

Read more

June 1, 2015
WASTE TO ENERGY TECHNOLOGY

This month’s issue by Eng. Maffeo Giovanni and Eng. Amelio Stefano with a contribution from Ms. Amani Maalouf, discusses waste to energy. The exchange depicts the available technology, design process with case studies implemented in Italy. In addition, an appraisal of technology’s comparative environmental performance in Lebanon is provided.

Read more

Saudi Arabia plans to become “a global power” by 2040 - 2050.

Read more

View all

Visit our website